Crowded Gorge Route Car After Jumping Track Settles in River Bottom

WASHOUT CAUSE OF THE ACCIDENT

Bek Line Car Plunges Down Twenty Foot Embankment to Edge of Whirlpool Rapids; Screaming Men and Women Fight to Escape; Guardsmen Aid in Rescue Work.

Niagara Falls, July 1.—A belt line car on the great Gorge route left the rails, plunged down a 20 foot embankment and turned over in 10 feet of water on the edge of the whirlpool rapids at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Nine persons are known to be dead, two persons known to have been on the car and have not been seen since the accident, are probably dead, an indefinite number are reported missing and more than a score are in the hospital suffering from injuries.

Caused by Washout.
A washout due to recent heavy rains was the cause of the disaster which occurred just below the cantilever bridge and 60 feet below the point where the smooth water of the upper Niagara river break into the turbulent waters of the whirlpool rapids.

The car was in charge of Motor-man Lewis C. Crandall and Conductor Alexander Heron.

It had all but completed the circuit of the gorge, having crossed from the Canadian side of the river on the trolley bridge at Lewiston. There were more than 50 passengers on board according to general estimates. The car was one of the open kind, the seats extending from side to side with steps on both sides of the full length of the car.

All the seats were occupied and some of the passengers were standing and there were others on the rear platform.

The car was running at about 20 miles an hour when it struck the weak spot in the railroad. Less than half a minute elapsed from the time the motorman felt the first jarring sway and when the car was at the bottom of the river.

As it slipped down the 20-foot incline from the tracks to the edge of the river, screaming men and women bought to escape and some of them were able to get free but were unable to get a footing on the steep bank.
There was a mad scramble in the shallow water between the wrecked car and the river bank and at least two passengers were seen to be caught in the swifter waters and were carried down to the whirlpool.

Members of the National Guard regiment who were on guard at the cantilever bridge saw the accident and were the first to the rescue. The soldiers slipped down the bank into the river and worked in water up to their waists and helped get passengers out of the water and passed them up to the bank.

The supports of the roof on the forward part of the car had been crushed by the impact on the rocks in the river bottom, throwing the seats toward the side of the chasm washed it out below the surface of the roadbed.
When the heavily loaded car struck the weak spot this afternoon the rails on the river side about 10 feet from the water gave way. The car turned on its side, slid down into the water, and as it struck the rocky bottom of the river turned completely over, the roof of the car resting on the bottom of the river. Not more than half a minute elapsed between the time the car left the rails and the time it came to a standstill in the river.

The bodies were recovered from the river when it was taken from the river by a derrick shortly after 8 o'clock.
Officials of the Gorge route said that the fire register indicated that the car was carrying about 40 persons. Some of these had been accounted for and the rest of missing had been narrowed down to about twenty.

Conductor Heron was in the forward part of the car collecting the fare of the fares. He was thrown from the running board and crushed to death as the car toppled over.

LANE AND BAKER CANNOT AGREE

Baker's Repudiation of Coal Agreement Causes Speculation

MAY MEAN PRICE FIXING

Possible That President Will Discuss Situation With Cabinet
At Length Tomorrow

Washington, D. C., July 1.—Official Washington awakened today to the possibilities of trouble in Secretary Baker's repudiation of the coal price fixing arrangement secured by Secretary Lane and the coal production committee of the Council of National Defence. So far there is no indication that the issue has become acute or that there will be a split in the cabinet, but Mr. Baker's public criticism of his colleagues is regarded as certain to be discussed at length when the President meets his official family Tuesday.

In the opinion of many officials the question may involve the entire make-up of the Council of National Defence and its civilian committee of business men, and echoes may be heard in legislation from congress.

Some believe that general price fixing by the government under law is not an impossible result.

The situation has brought to the front again reports of wide differences between cabinet members and other persons on the government's purchasing policy.

They point to the coal price agreement as the proper way to arrive at buying arrangements, particularly because that through this plan the general public as well as the government enjoys the low prices secured.

FRENCH JOYFUL AT ARRIVAL OF TROOPS

SAY WE DO NOTHING BY HALVES; GOT MORE THAN EXPECTED

Paris, France, Saturday, June 30.— (Delayed).—The French press and public have extended an enthusiastic greeting to the American troops, the announcement of whose landing was permitted for the first time tonight.
All the newspapers give a place of honor to descriptions of the landing of the troops.

The Journal des Debats, in an editorial says in part:
"The grand democracy of the new world does nothing by halves. It entered this vast conflict in full consciousness of the ends to be obtained and in full resolution to neglect nothing to obtain those ends."

"Two months and a half after the Americans entered the war their hardy troops arrived in solid line on the European front and it is not the modest advance guard which the most hopeful expected."

"Who can, even in Germany, be blind to the inevitable consequences of the event we are now witnessing."

AMERICANS SMASH PERISCOPE

London, England, July 1.—The gun crew of an American liner fired upon two German submarines during her voyage from the United States to England. Both targets were at a considerable range, but the report to Washington of the commanding officer will express the belief that one periscope was shattered.

A third submarine was sighted, but at a great distance and it submerged immediately.

The passengers expressed the greatest admiration for the marksmanship of the American gunners as shown both in practice and against the enemy. One member of the crew of the liner was formerly a gunner in the British navy and he won applause from American gunners by making a bullseye hit on a barrel target during practice.
On one occasion the Americans made seven bullseyes in eight tries.

SOCIALIST PARADE BROKEN UP BY RIOT

BOSTON RESERVES CALLED TO QUELL DISTURBANCE

Boston, Mass., July 1.—Riotous scenes attended a socialist parade today, which was announced as a peace demonstration. The ranks of the marchers were broken up by self organized squads of uniformed soldiers and sailors. Red flags and banners bearing socialist mottoes were trampled on, and literature and furnishings in the Socialist headquarters in Park Square were thrown into the street and burned. Police reserves stopped the rioting after it had been in progress an hour and a half. Many arrests were made.

The police took into custody some of the participants in hundreds of fist fights which occurred on the common and the line of the parade on Tremont street, while agents of the federal department of justice under the direction of Assistant District Attorney Goldberg arrested in the crowd a number of persons who are alleged to have made unpatriotic remarks in the heat of the conflict. None of the soldiers and sailors who figured in the disturbances were arrested.

Carry Red Flags.
The procession formed in Park square and passing through Elliott street, marched along Tremont street, one division going to the baseball grounds on the common where a meeting had been arranged, and another proceeding to Seely Square. Most of the marchers carried small red flags with white centers, emblematic of the peace demonstration. An American flag headed the procession.

Half a hundred men in the uniform of naval reservists, National Guardsmen, marines and Canadian Kilites, who had watched the formation of the parade, marched across the common in a double column and intercepted the procession. The contact resulted in a street fight. Blows were exchanged and flags were snatched from the hands of the marchers, while women in the line screamed.

Two Riots Occur.
The police had just succeeded in quieting the disturbance when the reserves were called out to quell a riot on the meeting place in the commons.
The first of the "speakers" had barely begun to speak when a riot broke out and the police were summoned. The permit for the speaking was revoked and the meeting called off.

The peace demonstration was organized at a conference of socialist branches of labor unions and workmen's benefit societies of the metropolitan district acting under the name of the workmen's council, imitating the workmen's council of Russia.
Among the speakers announced for the meeting were James H. Maurer, president of the Pennsylvania Tereba-

NEUTRALS FEED GERMANY'S ARMY

Great Britain Places Evidence
Before Washington Officials

FOOD COMES FROM U. S.

Germany Has Special Department to Trade With Scandinavia and Holland

Washington, D. C., July 1.—Evidence that Germany is obtaining vast quantities of food from the European neutral countries has been presented to the United States by Great Britain, for the American government's guidance in determining an expert control policy. Much of this British statistics purport to show, is replaced by the neutrals with imports from America.

From Scandinavia and Holland the British information sets forth enough facts are going into Germany to supply 7,700,000 soldiers, virtually the entire army of effectives in the empire, German imports from this country, it is declared, reduced to calories, will equal the total ration of 2,500,000 troops, the size of Germany's army in the west.

Special German Department.
German purchasers of foodstuffs abroad are made through the department of the interior, which has organized a special division to buy from neutrals. In the early days of the war the German government simulated importation of food. With the entry of America in the war, the British believe arrangements can be made for limiting the supplies going to the Scandinavian countries. Some merchants, it is declared, have made millions out of the illegal trade.

The British statement carries the following data as representing the minimum of food exports:
Butter, $2,600 metric tons; meat, 115,800 tons; pork products, 68,800; condensed milk, 70,000; fish, 407,000; cheese, 80,500; eggs, 46,400; potato meat, 178,500; coffee, 58,500. These figures are most impressive, it is asserted, in relation to facts of the scarcity of food in Germany.

American oil exports, the British brief says, find their way into Germany

THREATEN ANOTHER STRIKE
New York City Carmen Not Satisfied With Conditions.

New York, July 1.—Another strike on the surface car lines of this city was forecast by the announcement today that the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes would submit to the Third Avenue Railway company and the Public Service commission an ultimatum demanding the right to organize a union on the continuation of the present wage scale, which it is declared the corporation is preparing to reduce.

Louis Fridiger, counsel for the association, in a statement outlining the union's position, said it was not its purpose to declare a strike immediately, but that the men would insist upon the right to join the union and upon better working conditions.

RUSSIAN SOLDIERS ASSUME OFFENSIVE

Activity in Progress For First Time Since Recent Revolution

ATTACK THE GERMAN POSITIONS

Berlin Says Russians Were Repulsed on Eighteen and a Half Mile Line With Heavy Losses; Many Night Attacks Made, Aided By Artillery Fire.

The soldiers of the new Russia have assumed the aggressive. For the first time since the revolution of last March, Russian troops have begun an attack on an extensive scale.

Along a front of 18 1/2 miles in the region of Brezany, Galicia, Russian troops have stormed the German positions. Berlin says the Russians suffered heavy losses and were compelled to retire before German fire. The attack was made between the upper Stripa and the narrow Narayuvka river, a tributary of the Gnila Lipa, in the section southeast of Lemberg, the Galician capital, where the artillery firing has been heavy recently.

Made Night Attacks.
The Russians also made night attacks on both sides of Brezany and near Zwyzyn, and Berlin reports that assaults between the Zlota Lipa and the Narayuvka have brought on new battles between the opposing forces.
The artillery arm of the Russian forces has been active and from the Berlin reports it is learned that an intense duel has been in progress from the region of Brezany northward to the Middle Stockhod in Volhynia, a distance of about 175 miles.

Berlin declares that the Russian attacks, which it says were powerful, were brought about through the pressure of the leading entente powers.
The text of the official statement says:
"The Russian government, having been constrained to yield to the pressure of the leading entente powers, part of the army has been induced to attack."

The region of the Narayuvka and upper Stripa rivers has been the scene of much bitter fighting since General Brusiloff ended his victorious campaign last year, and Brezany is one of the keys to Lemberg.

Tighten Grip on Lens.
Field Marshal Haig continues to tighten his grip on Lens. On the north bank of the river Souchez British troops have captured German positions on a front of a half mile southwest and west of Lens.

The British army during June captured 8,886 German prisoners, including 175 officers and 67 guns, including two heavy guns, as well as much other war material.

The French and Germans continue to battle at various points on the front from Cerny to the Verdun region. East of Cerny the French have repulsed German attacks.

Two German submarines were fired on by the gun crew of an American liner during a voyage from the United States to England and the sailors believe one periscope was shattered. A third submarine was sighted, but submerged.

Vienna, Austria, July 1, British admiralty via London, England.—Austrian troops in Eastern Galicia are on the offensive against Russian attacks, says the statement issued today from Austro-Hungarian headquarters.

URGES RUSSIAN TRADE UNIONS

Commissioner Duncan Also Confers With Russian Minister

RED CROSS MISSION

Going to Hearten "Afflicted Russia" and Is Made Up of Twelve Health Experts

Petrograd, Russia, June 29.—(Delayed).—James Duncan, labor member of the United States commission to Russia, held the attention of the council of workmen and soldiers for more than an hour tonight while he explained how America had met its labor problem in the last decade and begged the Russian deputies to benefit by the experience and mistakes of the United States. Organized workers of America, he said, might be of service to the working people of Russia in helping them to develop practical trade unions.

In conference with M. Skoboleff, minister of labor, before the meeting, Mr. Duncan discussed the interpretation of the Russian watchword "peace without annexation."

Russian Arms Are Ours.
"The minister of labor made it clear to me," Mr. Duncan told an Associated Press correspondent, "that Russian democracy means nothing by this phrase which we cannot heartily subscribe to. Before this phrase was defined it seemed to mean that Germany was to emerge from the war with impunity and without making reparation for the damage that she had done.

But the Russian deputies do not mean this at all. They believe that Germany should be compelled to restore and make full reparation for Belgium and they are not opposed to the meaning of indemnities. There is no important difference between the aims of the Russian democracy and our own."

To Hearten Russia.

New York, July 1.—As an initial step in carrying out its purpose to do something immediately to lighten "afflicted Russia," Henry P. Davison, chairman of the Red Cross war council, announced here tonight the dispatch of a special Red Cross commission to Russia, carrying with it medical supplies and surgical instruments with which to meet the most urgent needs. The commission is composed of 12 men, including experts in problems of medicine, public health and social service.

It will be the purpose of the mission not only to give such immediate aid as it can, but to study methods by which the American Red Cross can extend most effective relief to wounded soldiers and needy civilians along the broadest possible lines. As advisors on solving questions of sanitation and public health the commission will have the assistance of Raymond Robins of Chicago, Dr. J. D. Mc-Carthy, president of public health in the University of Pennsylvania, and Dr. Whipple, professor of sanitary engineering at Harvard. To deal with the medical problems are Prof. Wm.
Shayne, of Johns Hopkins, Prof. C. E.
A. Winslow of Yale, and Dr. Wilber
E. Post of Chicago.

To Study Transportation.

Henry J. Horn, formerly vice president of New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, will co-operate with the American railroad commission already in Russia in studying the problem of transportation with a particular reference to making it certain that relief supplies reach their destination without delay. The other members of the commission are J. W. Andrews, Thomas Thatcher and Dr. Orrin Wheigham.

No decision as to how American relief on a large scale can best be administered in Russia, will be made by the war council until it has available the report of this special commission.

MILWAUKEE DEAD NOW FIFTEEN

Strong Current Blamed for Falling of Big Water Tank on Steamer.

persons, nine men and six women, dead, and approximately 13 injured comprise the latest list of casualties resulting from the fall of a big water tank onto a whaleback steamer. Three of the dead are yet unidentified.

Different versions were given today as to the cause of the accident, but all agreed that the primary cause was the exceptionally strong current sweeping into the Milwaukee river from the Minonimie, due to recent heavy rains.

London, England, July 1.—During the month of June we have taken in

MAJOR LEAGUE RACE TIGHT

Readers in Each League Hold Lead of Only Game and Half.

New York, July 1. — None of the leading teams in the two major baseball leagues profited much from another week of splendid baseball weather. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

New York, July 1.—The week in the stock market was devoid of important developments aside from the restoration of easier money conditions and the Interstate Commerce commission decision denying in the main the plea of the railroads for a horizontal rate increase.

It is too soon to judge the effect of this decision but interests identified with the largest transportation lines profess to find some encouragement in the few concessions granted.

Financial statements submitted during the week from railroad, industrial and commercial interests were of unusual promise on the decline in call and time loans was the automatic result of re-deposits made by the treasury for the Liberty loan. The coming fortnight will witness very heavy disbursements and this outflow may have a tendency to again harden money.

Temporary cessation of the gold inflow which reached a total in excess of $100,000,000, were offset by exports of about $12,000,000 mostly to Japan. Stocks in general were irregular the greater part of the time, mainly because of the heaviness of motors and utilities.

The bond market gave no signs of an awakening investment interest usual at this period of the year. Investors are continuing their attitude of aloofness pending adjustment of government price fixing and war taxation.

Loyalty Must Be Blind.

It is generally believed that business and poetry have nothing in common, yet when Tennyson wrote "The Charge of the Light Brigade" he committed to paper the most vital lesson a business employee can learn—the lesson of blind, blithe loyalty. No commercial organization can live in which loyalty is lacking; none can largely succeed in which it is lukewarm. The man who accepts pay must give more than his time, more than his intelligence; he must give also his heart. The boss may blunder, but the right kind of employee goes ahead anyway, doing the best he can.—Electrical Merchandising.

Four Governors in One Year.

In one year once the state of Maine enjoyed the novelty of having four governors. The year was 1843. Governor Fairchild was elected to serve that year, but resigned. He was succeeded by Governor Kavanaugh, president of the senate, but he also resigned. Then Governor Dunn, speaker of the assembly, took the chair, and he was succeeded by Governor Dana, president of the senate. Governor Anderson was elected for the year 1844.

The newly appointed official was received with the usual honors and then presented with a beautiful Masonic apron in behalf of the local fraternity, the presentation speech being made by Hon. Charles C. Flaesch, a past master of Freedom lodge. Mr. Homan made a very happy response. Many out of town members of the craft were in attendance, among them being Most Worshipful Charles Smith of Oneonta, Past Grand Master of Masons, and Judge Raymond of Franklin, a past master of the body at that place. The local orchestra was in attendance and refreshments were served by the ladies.

There are many reasons for gratitude, but let us not forget that so long as the war wages dangers threaten the country, and the people may again be called upon to use their utmost strength for liberty and independence. That God may reward them is my earnest prayer."

Sidney Defeats Norwich, 13 to 1.

The Sidney ball team defeated the Norwich team in the latter city yesterday afternoon by a score of 13 to 1. It was rather a one-sided affair, and according to the statements of members of the Sidney team, would have been more so but for the fact that the umpires were decidedly in favor of Norwich. The batteries were Fletcher and Ziemann for Sidney, and Ryan was in the box for Norwich. J. Marone's home run hit was the shining feature of the game.

The Spanish government has released the submarine which lately took refuge at Cadiz under pledge that it would go direct to a German port without attacking enemy ships. Spain either is unduly complaisant or unduly trustful. A German pledge made since the rape of Belgium has been a very flimsy piece of paper.

The final step in Brazil has at last been taken. The patrol of the South American waters will be taken by her and the navy of the United States will be released from that necessity. Moreover Brazil will co-operate in the work of safeguarding shipments of frozen meats and other products enroute to allied ports. In this same connection Brazil has seized German ships of 150,000 tons and is using them in the export trade.

Again the Crown prince, sweating under the misfortune of his plans of a year ago at Verdun, is assaulting that fortress with the pick of the German troops. It is not believed that capture of that French stronghold is possible, and failure will have a still more disastrous moral effect than that of a year ago. Many precious lives have been lost in the war in fruitless endeavor to bolster up the military reputation of the Crown Prince.

Today the people of Canada will celebrate at Ottawa the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Dominion. A common peril has brought the people of the Dominion and of the States closer together in sentiment than ever they were before, and on this side of the border there will be hearty congratulations over the semi-centennial of an event which as nearly as any colony of England could be made the provinces an independent nation.

That is a shrewd suggestion made a day or two ago, that there be an armistice between Germany and Russia until after the September elections in the latter country. This would for three months release all the German forces in the east for offensive action in the west, and afterwards they could come back, in case they won out in France, to crush Russia single-handed. This was the original German idea—to crush the allies separately—France first, then England and Russia. It did not work in 1914 and it will not work now.

The Kaiser not so long ago told his people that it was to save civilization from the Slav peoples that he was compelled to draw his sword. Events proved what everybody should have known that it was not the east that he proposed to draw his sword against, but the civilizations of France and England. Still it may be said that he spoke better than he knew. There was in fact a Slav peril and one not so negligible as that of the effeminate czar. It was the peril of democracy. With his secret ally-tyranny to his own people—now dethroned, the faces now a new Russia, which is likely from now on to do its full share in the big conflict.

The announcement that the United States was putting all the German ships in American harbors into the transportation service for Europe will be disquieting news to the central powers. So long as the ships lay in harbor there was a reasonable assurance that once the war was over they would be returned to the foreign owners. But if they are sunk by German submarines the probability of any repatriation is small indeed. Also it is gratifying to know that long ago the plans of the machinery of these ships was in the hands of the American government, and that all damage done to the engines had been repaired with remarkable speed.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

Arrival of Pershing's Army.
Safe arrival in France of the first two detachments of our army has stirred a few newspapers to fresh complaints about the secrecy of the sailing of the troops. It was all along, it is said, an open secret that they were on the seas. If German spies are operating here, they knew the fact as well as thousands of others. Nothing was gained by preventing the news from being printed. And how much was lost. If only the soldiers had been paraded on shore before embarking what acclaim would have greeted them, how they would have been covered with applause and flowers, what popular enthusiasm would have been evoked, how recruiting would have leaped forward and raised the army to war strength instantly? Possibly, we will even say probably. But in imagining what might have been, we may also fancy another course of events. Suppose that full publicity had been given to the fact of assembling and departure of General Pershing's men; that the populace and the newspapers had had their fill; and then suppose that one of the transports had been torpedoed on the way to France, with the loss of 4,000 men. Military secrecy would have looked somewhat different in that event.—(New York Evening Post.

The Norwegian Outrage.

This country has had experience enough with Herr Zimmermann to sympathize with Norway in the humiliating outrage to which it has been subjected. Not content with sinking Norwegian ships with submarines Germany undertook (perhaps in order to save the cost of torpedoes) to blow them up with infernal machines, and sent the explosives for the purpose by special messenger under diplomatic immunity. The messenger was arrested, and evidence was found fixing the responsibility on the German foreign office, as the Norwegian government allowed it to be understood in politely returning the messenger to Berlin. For such an abuse of the courtesy accorded to diplomatic representatives it would be hard to find a parallel before the present war; in view of what this country has learned of the entire lack of decency and good faith in the crew at the German foreign office, this treachery toward Norway will cause little surprise. But if a government takes Bismarck and Machiavelli for its mentors, it ought at least to master the art of not getting found out.—(Springfield Republican.

Hoosiers.

While the derivation of the word Indiana from Indian is apparent the origin of the word Hoosier applied to an inhabitant of that state is not regarded as entirely clear. The theory which has gained the greatest acceptance is that it received its present form from the vernacular rendering of the query, "Who's yer?" Instead of "Who are you?" when a stranger appeared at the door of a frontier cabin. For a long time the word Hoosier was regarded as implying a reflection on the person to whom it was applied, but of recent years it has found a recognized place in good literature.—(Brooklyn Standard-Union.

The Truth About Constantine.

Maximilian Harden dares to tell the Germans the truth about Greek affairs when he says, "Constantine believed he was king by the grace of God, but he was really only king by the grace of the protecting powers." The old theory of kingship by Divine right has received two notable jolts, one in Russia and the other in Greece, and unless rumor be false it may soon receive another.—(New York World.

A Southern View.

"Do we have to be called Yankees along with everybody else by those people in Europe?" asks an old rebel. "Yes, colonel, and, furthermore, it will be up to the Dixie boys to put some real yank in Yankee.—(Houston (Tex.) Post.

Gurney Family Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Gurney family was held Saturday at the home of Isaac Gurney in the village of Maryland. Thirty-one members of the family were present at a gathering whose joys were chastened by the tidings of the death of Mrs. Stephen Gurney of Earlville, mention of whose demise appears elsewhere in this issue, and who in other years had been a welcome attendant at the reunions. Delicious refreshments were served, and later a business session was held at which E. G. Ackley of West Oneonta was elected president and Miss Laura Gurney of Portlandville secretary and treasurer.

Besides those from the immediate vicinity there were present Mrs. Martha Bryant of Greene, Mrs. Clara Platt of Milford, Mrs. Blake Conner of Herkimer, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Ackley of West Oneonta, Mrs. T. F. Manning of Oneonta and Mr. and Mrs. George Van Valkenburg of Binghamton. The next reunion will be held on Saturday, June 23, 1918, at the home of Arthur Bundy in Schenectady.

Simmons' Reunion Held Saturday.

A reunion of the R. A. Simmons family was held in Schenectady Saturday. About 90 people were present to enjoy a pleasant time. The gathering met in the pavilion, where an excellent basket luncheon was served after the business meeting. Members of the family were present from Prattsville, Stamford, Sidney, Cooperstown and other nearby towns. At the business session, the following officers were elected: President, Sherman Simmons of Oneonta; Vice president, James Simmons, West Oneonta; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Sherman Simmons, Oneonta. The next reunion will be held in Oneonta the last Saturday in June, 1918.

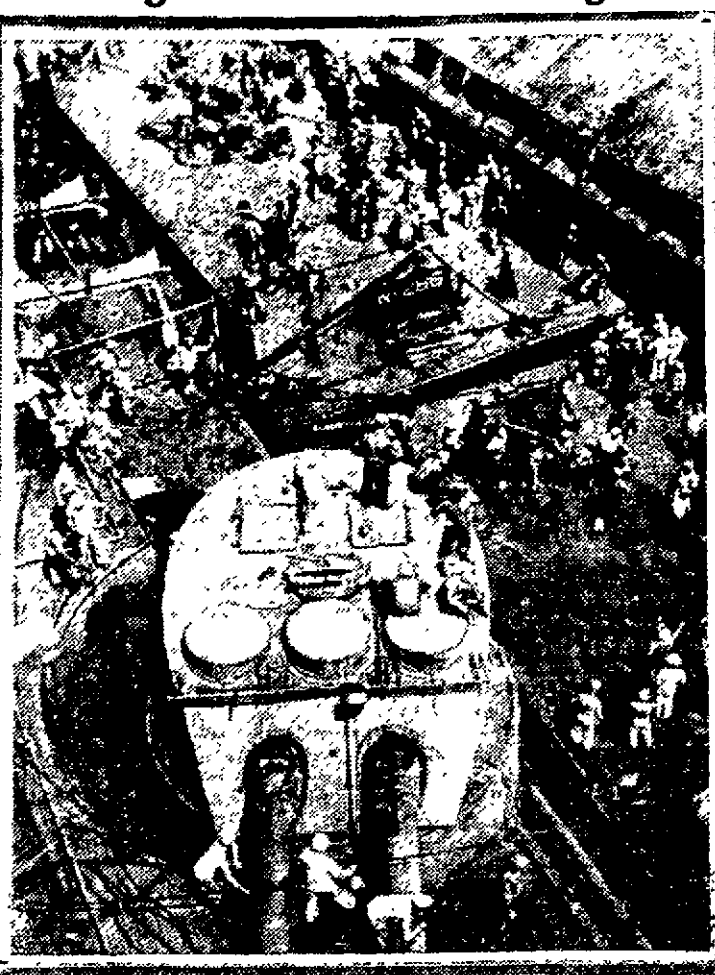

Ferguson Family Reunion.

The reunion of the Ferguson family was held at James Davis' Thursday, June 28. There were 59 members present. The day was an ideal one and with the tables spread under the large shade trees a bountiful dinner was served, which everyone heartily enjoyed. The time was passed in music, singing and recitations. A business meeting was held in which the following officers were elected: Frank Burnside, president; O. A. Hubbell, vice president; Mrs. William McCall, secretary; Mrs. Earl Root, treasurer.

Hubbell, presented the interests of the Red Cross society, and asked for an offering, and with an attendance of 52 $6.00 was received. From the department at Washington information has been received at the Oneonta post office that letters, post cards and printed matter originating in this country for the members of the United States Expeditionary forces in France are subject to United States domestic classification and rates of postage. United States postage stamps only are valid for the prepayment of postage.

In writing the address of matter intended for the members of the expeditionary forces only the name of the recipient, and the company and regiment, to which he belongs, together with the statement, "American expeditionary forces," are allowable. The location of the unit to which the recipient is attached must not be given.

The letters and mail for members of the expeditionary forces from this country will be forwarded to Bordeaux, France, thence to be distributed. Marcus H. Bunn has been appointed postal agent at Bordeaux to look after the mail for the American soldiers.

Letters from members of the expeditionary forces, when endorsed as soldiers' letters, of marines' letters and signed thereunder either with fac-simile hand or stamp or in writing by an officer to whose command the soldier belongs, or by a surgeon or chaplain of a hospital where he may lie, or in the case of a marine service by an officer of a ship, hospital or commanding a detachment ashore may be forwarded to destination without prepayment of postage and only the single rate of postage be collected on delivery.

SOUTHERN NEGRO PULLS RAZOR.

Altercation on Hunt Street Results in Stabbing Fray on Sunday.

Yesterday afternoon the entire police force of the city was called out to search for one Oshy Brown, colored, hailing from the south, who, following an altercation with one John Jefferson, who also hails from the land of cotton and hominy, pulled a razor and slashed Jefferson in the right side, inflicting a wound about four inches long extending to the ribs. Brown beat a hasty retreat after the cutting. He ran down Hunt street to the D. & H. tracks, up the fair ground bank, through the grounds by way of the cattle sheds to Sind street, and thence to the D. & H. tracks, and so to East End, where he took refuge for a short time in an unoccupied house. He concluded to go about the time the police got close on his trail, and he had reached Enmons before the police with the assistance of volunteers had him surrounded. William Otten, a corporal of Company C, was the first to get to him and he in turn surrendered him to Officer Brown, who was close by. Brown was lodged in the city jail. He with Jefferson came from the south about three months ago and had been working in Cooperstown. They came to Oneonta on Saturday. The offender will be arraigned today. The injury received by Jefferson is not serious.

The second parcel, consisting of a house and lot located at 51 Miller street, was sold to Seybolt & Seybolt for $1.00 over the incumbrances, which amounted to $1,352.55.

Yesterday morning the dog accompanied Mr. Dickinson in his automobile to the vulcanizing shop. The wound was a very painful one and required the attention of a surgeon.

BOOZE FEST ENDS IN DEATH

WATSON SMITH OF UNADILLA CAUGHT BETWEEN TWO MOTOR CARS AND KILLED.

Victim One of Party from Unadilla Returning Home from Saturday Night's Carousal in Oneonta—Coroner Getman Commences Investigation Today.

Shortly after midnight Sunday morning, while returning to his home in Unadilla after an evening's booze fest in this city, Watson Smith, aged 48 years and the father of 11 children, was instantly killed in a shocking motor car accident occurring near the Horace Windsor farm about 1½ miles east of Unadilla near the Cone home-stand. Smith was one of a party that came to Oneonta from Unadilla for the evening and while returning the motor car was stopped by tire trouble. While Smith was standing behind the car in which he was one of the passengers, a Cadillac touring car owned and driven by David Reed of Sidney came around the curve, nearly 200 feet away, and crashed into the rear of the first car, catching Smith firmly between the two and crushing him so badly that life was extinct when the rear car was backed off. Drs. White and Joyce of Unadilla were summoned to the scene by a third car which came up from behind and hurried on to Unadilla for that purpose. They attended to the minor injuries of the other occupants of the cars and Dr. White, pending the arrival of Coroner Getman of this city there today, acted as coroner.

The Unadilla parties were in a large Case car owned by Ora Fisk of Unadilla and it was driven by Raymond Loomis, a nephew of Smith, the victim. With them on the trip were J. Kinch, Clark Spencer, Dick Burton, Dell Wilsey and Clarence Smith, a son of the victim. The party left Unadilla late in the afternoon to spend the evening here. There is little doubt that they visited Oneonta drinking places and most of the party imbibed. On the return trip, commenced after 12 o'clock, a rim came off a rear wheel near the foot of Cutler Hill, the winding and dangerous grade, and the car was stopped near the Windsor farm. Loomis and another member of the party started back to look for the rim. Near the foot of Cutler hill the Reed car approached them and according to Loomis he stopped them and told them where his car stood and warned them to be on the lookout for it. The parties conversed a few minutes, some of the members taking another drink, and then the Reed car started on. In a few seconds it crashed, while going at a good clip, into the rear of the Case car, pinning Smith between them, killing him instantly. Another member of the Unadilla party was also standing with Smith, but he stepped aside and escaped serious injury.

Those who frequent the highway at this point will recall that as one approaches Unadilla from the east the highway at the last farm house on the left curves toward the railroad tracks, the river, highway and tracks coming close together 600 feet beyond. The Case car stood 155 feet from the center of this curve on the extreme right of the highway close against the guard fence. With Reed in the Cadillac car were Charles Gilbert and Hazel (Hod) Hutchinson, also of Sidney. They also had spent the evening in Oneonta and were returning to Sidney and admit having been drinking. Reed declares that he did not see the Case car until he was upon it, that he was driving about 25 miles an hour and that no light was visible on the rear of the car. The occupants of that car insist that the tail lamp was lit. It was not burning when others reached the scene, but it may have been extinguished by the impact. It is possible that Smith stood between Reed and the tail lamp.

THE STRAND TODAY.

Stuart Holmes in a Wonderful William Fox drama, "The Derelict."

"The Derelict," featuring the popular Stuart Holmes, is a lesson for every young and married man. He neglected his home and work for the Bohemian pleasures, as a victim of this life he feigns suicide to drop from the sight of his scornful friends, his wife remarries, he is caught in the dizzy whirl and carried down, his friends do not recognize him, his child denies him and like all the rest of them he awakes too late to see his folly, yet he lives on a bit of human driftwood and pays a hundredfold for the pleasures that wrecked his life. The story is well done and shows that "the wages of sin is death." We also have a good Pathe comedy.

"THE CLOUD."

FOOD SAVING SUNDAY.

Pastors of Oneonta Call Attention to Stupidity of Waste.

The pastors of the churches in Oneonta, complying generally with the request of Commissioner Hoover relative to Food Saving Sunday, either preached sermons entirely suggested by this movement, or referred to it in the course of their remarks. Everywhere there was evident the desire to impress the gravity of the food situation upon their hearers, and the fact that the world and not merely our own people are looking toward the United States in the present emergency.

At the First Presbyterian church Dr. Russell devoted the sermon of the morning to a sermon on "The Sin of Waste." The sermon was a forcible and eloquent presentation of the duty of Americans in this emergency. At the First Baptist church Dr. Farley on the theme of "A Labor Not in Vain," earnestly presented the necessity of food conservation to his hearers. At St. James' church Rev. George C. Dickinson referred to the proclamation by President Wilson, the letter of Commissioner Hoover and the letter sent to all clergymen of the diocese by the bishop.

At the United Presbyterian church Dr. Smiley spoke on "The Measure of Our Patriotism." The points which he chiefly enforced were that we should buy prudently, serve judiciously, rather up carefully, preserve bountifully and select carefully. At the close of the service a collection amounting to over $12 was taken for the Red Cross. At the Free Baptist church Dr. Pendleton in the conclusion of his sermon enforced the public duty of food saving in the present world-wide emergency. At the Methodist Episcopal church communion service was held; but at a later date the general "Food Saving" theme will be taken up by Mr. Johns from that pulpit. At the Lutheran church there was communion and reception of members, but the pastor will probably make food saving the theme of his discourse next Sunday. Owing to the fact that Father McCaffrey was suffering from a severe cold there was no sermon at St. Mary's church Sunday morning.

THE FOURTH IN ONEONTA.

Meeting This Evening at Chamber of Commerce Rooms to Perfect Plans.

Although a trifle late in making the announcement, Oneonta is to have a patriotic celebration Wednesday.

Mayor Ceperley has appointed Aldermen Lauren and Bolton and Park Commissioner L. C. Gurney to work with a committee consisting of H. W. Fuhrer, E. L. Sellers and E. M. Roman from the Chamber of Commerce to perfect arrangements for a celebration.

The committee will meet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 7:30 tonight and perfect tentative plans briefly outlined by the committee.

It has been stated there will be a band concert in the stadium in Wilber park Wednesday night. The band stand will be illuminated. It is possible there may be some patriotic vocal music or community singing, but these details will be determined at the meeting tonight. One or two short patriotic addresses will be given. The speakers will not be announced until tomorrow or Wednesday morning.

CAUGHT AT SHOPLIFTING.

Four Young Fellows Pull Stunt at Store of Arthur M. Butts.

Saturday afternoon four young fellows entered the store of Arthur M. Butts and while two of them engaged the attention of the clerks two others attempted to get away with some articles in the stock. The fellows beat a hasty retreat when they saw that the game was seen. The clerks followed them far enough to learn the identity of two of them and it is understood have fairly good proof of the names of the four members. It is probable that prosecution will follow, although it is understood that no arrests have as yet been made.

HOW TO "GET MOST HUNS"

Fliers Find Help In Time of Trouble by Putting Themselves in Enemy's Place and Wondering How Frightened He Too, Must Be—Mystery of the "Doo-Hickie" Still Unsolved.

Among the possessions of a British naval squadron co-operating with the "army that flies" along the front is a foolscap manuscript notebook bearing the superscription "Notes on Aerial Fighting." The youthful author of these notes will never handle pen again, but he has left behind him a document that is in its way one of the epics of war literature. It has since been printed (in expurgated form) and as doubtless found its way into textbooks and treatises on the subject. But to be appreciated to the full it should be read in the original round, rather boyish handwriting within hearing of the continuous murmur of the British guns and the drone of a scouring fighter passing overhead.

It contains ten commandments, which, for a variety of reasons, need not be recapitulated here. But the introduction epitomizes the spirit of them all:

"The man who gets most Huns in his lifetime is the man who observes these commandments and fights with his head. The others either get killed or get nerves in a very short time, and the country does not get the full benefit of having trained them."

The commandments conclude with the following exhortation: "A very pleasant (sic) help in time of trouble is to put yourself in the enemy's place and view the situation from his point of view. If you feel frightened before an attack just think how frightened he must be."

A Frenchman Appears.

Thus fate introduced the Frenchman to the stranger within the gates of

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Care of Children's Eyes.

It is especially important that parents should appreciate the need of proper care of the eyes of the newborn baby and the urgent necessity of consulting a competent physician as soon as anything wrong with the baby's eyes is noticed, especially if there is a discharge from them. Many cases of blindness result from the discharges known as ophthalmia neonatorum, or the eye disease of newborn babies, which could have been prevented had simple preventive measures been used, or which could have been cured if treated in time by the doctor.

Children with "cross eyes" or with a "cast in the eye" as cross eyes is sometimes called, should be taken to a competent eye physician as soon as the defect is noticed and long before the child has reached school age. Neglect of cross eyes may result in blindness or defective sight in one or other of the child's eyes from misuse or improper use of the eyes, even in very young children.

the navy that flies. The flying man landed on one of the airframes of the navy that flies, a blond faced young man, chubby and blue eyed. The squadron stroled out to greet him with ready hospitality and her worship.

"Bon jour, N." said the squadron commander. "How goes it?"

"Translate, George," said the squadron commander.

"He says he's on sick leave," explained one of the hosts. "He's just flying to keep his eye in. He scuppered five hobses last week."

"Out," said the Frenchman, nodding, and held up his hand with outstretched fingers, "clug."

"Good on you, old sport!" said the squadron commander. They shook hands again, and the remainder clustered rather curiously around the sinister machine with the black skull and crossbones adorning its fuselage.

"Makes one sort of sorry for the Hun, doesn't it?" said one aviator, musingly.

"George," said another, "ask him what that doo hickie on the muzzle of his gun's for." He indicated a detail on the mounting.

The Frenchman explained at some length, and the interpreter interpreted.

"Bon!" said the squadron commander.

"Out," said the Frenchman. "Tres bon! You've not yet seen—comment dites vous—doo hickie? No?"

"No," was the reply. "Mais nous blooming well allous."

Definition of a "Doo Hickie."

The Frenchman presently climbed back into his machine and took his departure. The squadron commander summoned his chief armorer and for awhile deep called to deep.

"He's a redhot hot, that Frenchman," said the squadron commander when the chief armorer had gone. "I fancy he only came down to let us see that doo hickie of his on his gun. You ought to hear him spin some of his yarns, though."

The stranger within the gates of the navy that flies gazed after the aerial speck against the blue of heaven, and his soul was glad within him because

"That's all right," he said. "But what I should like to know is, What the dence is a doo hickie?"

"A doo hickie?" replied the squadron commander. "A doo hickie? It m'n, George, how would you describe a doo hickie?"

The officer appeared to puff his pipe in silence for a moment.

"Well," he said at length, "you know more or less what a gadget's like?"

"Yes."

"And a gilly?"

"Yes."

"Well, a doo hickie is something like that, only smaller, as a rule."

There was silence. Then the squadron commander leaned forward and flicked a speck of dust off the shoulder of the stranger within their gates.

"There you are!" he exclaimed triumphantly, "that's a doo hickie!"

"Have a drink anyway," said the officer who answered to the name of George soothingly.

The stranger within the gates of the navy that flies had the drink and from that time onward forbore to ask any more questions. But he still sometimes wonders what are the functions of a doo hickie.

Tools For the Farm.

In Farm and Fireside are given the following list of the tools every farmer must own:

"Under the title of 'Repair Shop,' C. I. Guinness, a Massachusetts machinery expert, lists the following tools as invaluable on every farm. The chest includes rip-saw, crescent saw, claw hammer, steel square, jack plane, block plane, spirit level, brace and set of auger bits. Many other tools might be mentioned, but with those listed practically all of the necessary farm carpenter work can be done."

PRESS ENDORSE JUDGE A. L. KELLOGG

Candidacy For Justice of Supreme Court Receives Hearty Support

His Notable Career As Attorney and Jurist Wins Flattering Endorsement Wherever He Is Known—Qualifications For Office Widely Recognized.

JUDGE KELLOGG FOR JUSTICE.

Eminently Well Fitted for the Supreme Court Bench.

Hon. A. L. Kellogg, of Oneonta, county judge of Otsego county, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for supreme court justice to succeed Hon. Albert H. Sewell, of Walton, who retires at the end of the year on account of having reached the age limit.

Judge Kellogg is a native of Treadwell and well known in Delaware county. He is now serving his second term as county judge of Otsego. The feeling among lawyers generally is that the nomination should go to either Delaware or Otsego counties.

Judge Kellogg is essentially a self-made man. As county judge of Otsego he has made a fine record, dispensing justice fairly and impartially. He has a stronghold in the influential county of Otsego and a large following in Delaware sure to give his candidacy strong support at the primaries for nominations and his record on the county court bench will prove a powerful factor in his behalf. (Schenectady Record (Republican)).

sons now resident in Otsego county is a candidate and will have our hearty support. Hon. A. L. Kellogg of Oneonta is the candidate referred to. He is now county judge of Otsego county, and in every way qualified for promotion to the supreme court. His election would serve the convenience of our people better than that of any of the other candidates, because of Oneonta being much more easy of access, as well as because of his ability, knowledge and experience on the bench. To go to Norwich or Binghamton for court purposes where the other candidates reside, would take at least one day longer and be much more expensive than if the supreme court judge lived at Oneonta. For all these reasons, because of geographical location, his being a native son of Delaware county, his experience on the bench.

his ability as a lawyer, and his natural qualifications for the position, the Times unhesitatingly endorses Judge Kellogg for the nomination and urges every Republican to support him at the coming primary. (Roxbury Times (Republican)).

HON. A. L. KELLOGG.

Endorsed by Otsego and Delaware Counties.

County Judge of Otsego, and candidate for supreme court judge in this judicial district to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Judge Sewell. Judge Kellogg is a Delaware county man, and is one of the most able lawyers in New York state, and a judge whose merits are already acknowledged by all.

The Herald takes great pleasure in endorsing the candidacy of Mr. Kellogg, and firmly believes that his nomination and election will work for the best interests of both Delaware and Otsego as well as the other counties in this judicial district. (Fleischmann Herald (Republican)).

Would Adorn the Bench.

We notice that the Oneonta Bar association has unanimously endorsed the candidacy of A. L. Kellogg, county judge of Otsego county, for the supreme court bench to take the place of Judge A. H. Sewell, who will retire by reason of age limit. Should he receive the nomination it would be a wise selection. He is a thoroughly competent man, one who has made good in all positions, successful as a lawyer and now serving a second term as county judge, to which office he has twice been elected by much more than a party vote. He has a judicial temperament, knows the law, a lover of justice, a judge who would adorn the bench of the supreme court, as he has already shown his worth as county judge.

Again, his location at Oneonta, a point easy of access, would convenience more litigants than would a judge at any other point not already fairly provided for. (Margaretville Utilitarian (Democrat)).

Judge A. L. Kellogg For Supreme Court—A Native Son of Delaware.

There is to be competition this summer for the supreme court justiceship which Judge Sewell's retirement for age will impose upon this judicial district. Broome as usual has a candidate, but the remainder of the district is likely to rather resent this, since Broome already has one justice, and since it has always been customary for this end of the district to have at least one occupant of the supreme bench.

County Judge A. L. Kellogg of Oneonta has some time since announced his candidacy, and is making as active a canvass as the dignity of the office permits. Judge Kellogg well argues that to take away a trial judge from Otsego and Delaware counties would work great injustice, and that the people of the district will never allow it.

The two counties have about 100,000 population and a bar membership of 160.

Were there no trial judge in either county many very prominent members of both county bars would have to travel 160 miles to get an order. There has been at least one judge within the borders of these two counties since the formation of the district, which in area is nearly one-half the extent of the whole district. Of the two counties Oneonta is almost the geographical center as the map shows.

Judge Kellogg is a native son of Delaware county, and has a wide acquaintance throughout its borders. He is receiving the support of great numbers of influential members of the bar, and has a host of friends among laymen as well. His reputation in Otsego is shown by the majorities he has always received when a candidate for judicial honors there. (Delaware Express (Republican)).

The Logical Candidate.

Judge A. L. Kellogg of Oneonta was in town Tuesday in the interest of his political canvass for the Republican nomination for judge in place of Judge Sewell who will retire because of the age limit. He is the logical geographical candidate, and should receive the nomination, to say nothing of his other qualifications, which are conceded by all. (Hancock Herald (Independent)).

Who Will Be Supreme Judge?

The supreme court judgeship is attracting considerable attention from lawyers, politicians and newspapers throughout this district, as a successor to Judge Sewell is to be elected next fall. Broome county has two candidates; Chenango one and Otsego one. The Republican is entirely non-partisan as regards each of the candidates; its concern is to see the district have an upright judge. Otsego's candidate—now County Judge A. L. Kellogg—has been personally known to the editor for some years, in fact we attended Delaware academy at the same time and it is regarded as a privilege to testify to the high character which Mr. Kellogg has always sustained. Besides this good foundation, he has built upon it a knowledge of law and equity which entitles him to recognition as qualified for the exalted position to which he very properly aspires. Then, he is a native of Delaware county, which entitles him in our opinion (other candidates claiming equal scholarly attainments) to first consideration in his old home community and our understanding is that it is the unanimous expression of the Delaware county bar that Judge Kellogg should be accorded the vote of this county in the primaries. That being the case, all parties in Delaware county should line up for Judge Kellogg. His success at the polls would accommodate the citizens of this county who have court business better than the selection of any of the other candidates. (Delaware Republican).

Well Known Oneonta Lawyer Announces Candidacy.

Hon. A. L. Kellogg of Oneonta, county judge of Otsego county, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for supreme court justice to succeed Hon. Albert H. Sewell, of Walton, who retires at the end of the year on account of having reached the age limit.

Judge Kellogg is a native of Treadwell and well known in Delaware county. He is now serving his second term as county judge of Otsego. He is 56 years of age. The feeling among lawyers generally is that the nomination should go to either Delaware or Otsego counties. (Walton Reporter (Democrat)).

A Self Made Man.

Judge Abraham L. Kellogg, of Oneonta, candidate for the supreme court judgeship to succeed Judge Albert H. Sewell, was in town calling on friends last Thursday. Judge Kellogg for a number of years has been county judge of Otsego county, and has a strong claim as Mr. Sewell's successor. He is a self-made man, a lawyer of great ability, and a winner in whatever he undertakes. We expect to see him selected as the logical candidate for the supreme court judgeship and elected by an overwhelming majority. (Deposit Courier (Independent)).

"Solid Gold."

Commercially speaking, the term "solid gold" is a misnomer, since such gold has not been used for many years. Some of the ancient Roman jewelry and some of that of the renaissance period was, indeed, made of pure gold, worked up by hand with the crudest of tools, but since the old days there has been a constantly increasing employment of alloys, for the reason that jewelers found that the harder the gold was rendered by good alloys the greater its wearing qualities and the more secure, therefore, was the setting of the gems it contained. Nowadays jewelry is of 18, 14 or 10 carats, according to the design and character of the article, and it is much more frequently 10 than 18 carats.

Gait of the Fox.

The usual gait of the fox, unlike that of the dog, is, at night at least, a walk. On such occasions he goes through the fields in an alert, stealthy manner, stepping about a foot at a time and keeping his eyes and ears open.

There were also bushes which might have hid the tall light from Reed's view when first he rounded the curve, but for more than 125 feet he should have seen the Case car clearly if his lights were working properly.

Mr. Loomis, who appears to have been clear headed, declares that the emergency brakes of the Case car were set. It was forced ahead for 45 feet at least and the gas tank at the rear penetrated and the car otherwise damaged. The right side of the Cadillac car struck the center of the Case car and Smith was pinned against the rear of the left spring of the Case car. The front axle of the Cadillac car was badly bent. Both cars were badly damaged. They were taken to the Fisk garage in Unadilla. Hutchinson, one of the occupants of the Reed car, sustained a painful cut on the head, but Gilbert escaped uninjured. Kinch, one of the Unadilla party, who was asleep in the rear seat of the Case car, was rendered unconscious by the accident, but was not seriously injured.

The odor of whiskey about the scene when the neighbors reached there was stronger than that of the spilled gasoline, and it is doubtful if all the bottles that found their way into the adjacent meadow have been recovered. Two bottles in the hips of Smith's trousers were ground to powder, while a third in his side coat pocket was unbroken.

Rigid Investigation Needed.

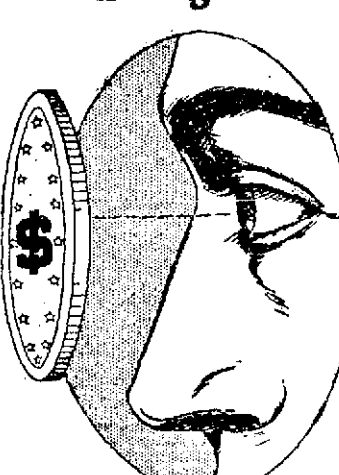

The investigation which Coroner Getman commences today should, and doubtless will be thorough. The highways should be made safe for the public always. They are speedily becoming unsafe, especially at week-ends and holidays. Until other relief is available there apparently is need of a rigid examination for all drivers, including owners, with some method of depriving those who drive when unfit of their licenses.

Smith's Funeral Tuesday.

The funeral of Watson Smith is to be held from his late home in Unadilla Tuesday afternoon with Rev. Yale Lyon officiating and interment in Evergreen Hill cemetery.
